

Important Notice for Parents and Carers: Operation Encompass Alert

We want to let our school community know that Thomas Alleyne's High School is proud to be an Operation Encompass Alert school.

What is Operation Encompass?

Operation Encompass is a national initiative that helps schools support children and young people who may have been affected by domestic abuse. It ensures that our safeguarding team is promptly informed by the police if a child has been present at, or impacted by, a domestic abuse incident.

Why is this important?

This information allows us to provide immediate, tailored support to pupils who may need it, ensuring their safety and wellbeing are always a priority.

What does this mean for you and your child?

- Confidentiality: Information shared with the school is treated in strict confidence and only key staff are informed.
- Support: We are here to listen and provide help to any pupil or family who needs it.
- Partnership: We work closely with parents, carers, and external agencies to keep our pupils safe.

If you have any questions or concerns about Operation Encompass or safeguarding in general, please contact our safeguarding team via the school office or 'Report a Safeguarding Concern Tab' on the website.
